

North South University's contribution to fighting COVID-19 so far

- 10 Volunteer Doctors to Shasthya Batayan.
- 5 Volunteer students working with the Directorate General of Health Services.
- 2 Volunteers at IEDCR information services - helping with data processing and analysis.
- 1 Real time PCR for Covid-19 testing to the main lab of IEDCR (on loan basis).
- Cash Contribution to the Honourable Prime Minister's Relief and Welfare Fund Tk 50,00,000 (Taka fifty lacs only) being two day's salary sacrifice of academic and administrative staff.
- Cash contribution (commitment) to the Prime Minister's Relief and Welfare Fund Taka 50,00,000 (Taka fifty lacs only) as part of the APUB contribution.
- 10,000 bags of relief material costing over 50,00,000 (Taka fifty lacs only) distributed through Bangladesh Police.

We will keep contributing in cash and kind to this fight against COVID-19, to the best of our ability, under the inspiring leadership of our Prime Minister.